ORDER:

Based on the surprise check conducted by the Anti Corruption Bureau Officials over the Office of the Regional Transport Office, Hindupur, disciplinary proceedings have been initiated against Sri K.R.Narasimha Reddy, the then Regional Transport Officer, and now retired as Deputy Transport Commissioner in the Memo. 1st read above, on the allegation that while he was working at the Office of the Regional Transport Office, Hindupur engaged private persons as agents unauthorizedly; that he failed to control his subordinate staff and also failed to make entries in the Personal Cash Register maintained in the office etc.

2. In his representations 2nd read above, Sri K.R.Narasimha Reddy has inter-alia stated that after his assumption, there was gradual improvement in the functioning of the office and enhanced to image of the office; that in certain cases, persons may be attending the office for payment of tax etc. on behalf of the owners of the transport vehicles and they might be collecting some handling charges and the same cannot be treated as within his domain to be controlled and therefore, that cannot stretch as lack of control over his subordinates; that it is highly impossible to discriminate persons who visit the office for their official transactions; that he is being the Regional Transport Officer, there is no necessity to declare the cash in Personal Cash Register and no cash was found with him; that he has been working with utmost care and diligence to improve the image of the department and therefore requested to drop further action against him.
